Miranda. How are you? I saw this brochure about Buntleigh Castle. It sounds really interesting. There are some lovely gardens and a lake where you can hire a boat if you want. I know you love boating. Shall we go there after we've finished our exams? We can ask some of the other students to come too! Let me know what you think!

Saturday morning I was in our garden. I wanted to read my Harry Potter book. Suddenly I heard our next door neighbour shout. I looked over the wall. Mr Pike was at a table with his new laptop. He had a problem with it. I went round to his garden and helped him. It wasn't difficult but he was really pleased.

After we sat in his garden and chatted. He had a cup of tea and I had an ice-cream. It's important to help your neighbours especially when they are old (91 words)

ANSWER*My friend Jessie was having trouble walking his dog. He would try to walk straight down the sidewalk, but his dog would try to pull him across the street. That's bad, because the dog could get into a fight with another dog. So, Jessie took his dog to a training school. Jessie and his dog learned a lot, and they liked the class. Jessie learned how to get his dog to sit. Now Jessie and his dog know what to do. Now, they enjoy their walks together. (87 words)
